

Theatre Nova Scotia Legacy Award Nomination Form

Theatre Nova Scotia created the TNS Legacy Award for outstanding contribution to professional theatre in Nova Scotia. The winner is announced at the annual Robert Merritt Awards. Nominations are accepted from individual members, Professional Theatre organizations, and the general public. Nominators should address how a nominee has contributed to Nova Scotian theatre in the areas of organizational development, community building, mentorship and education.

Please list any volunteer or board positions held by the nominee, as well any artistic contributions made to the Nova Scotian theatre community or any other relevant information. Nominees may include but are not limited to: actors, directors, producers, playwrights, designers, scenic artists, carpenters, sound and lighting technicians, stage managers, administrators and theatre educators. Recipients are eligible to receive the award one time only. The award is open to all Nova Scotians.

Eligibility:

- The nominee has made a significant contribution to theatre in Nova Scotia
- The nominee has shown exceptional commitment to theatre in Nova Scotia
- The nominee is a resident of Nova Scotia
- Recipients are eligible to receive the award one time only

Notices:

- The nominations will be reviewed by a TNS Selection Committee panel.
- The award will be given annually, except when the Selection Committee deems that there is no suitable recipient.
- The recipient will be notified in advance.
- The award will be presented publicly at the annual TNS Merritt Awards Gala, unless the recipient would prefer not to receive it in such a forum.
